EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. This Office Action is in response to the amendment filed on 9/12/2009.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 42-48, and 50-93 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 42 recites, inter alia, two voltage control members, each of which is arranged at one of the two points and is connected to one of said two transformers and which are operative to control said two transformers in a coordinated manner to regulate an operating voltage level of said insulated AC transmission cable whereby losses due to reactive power transport are minimized.

Claim 69 recites, inter alia, controlling said transformers in a coordinated manner to regulate an operating voltage level of said insulated AC transmission cable, whereby losses due to reactive power transport are minimized, wherein said operating voltage may differ from a voltage of said one or more power networks

Claim 83 recites, inter alia, two voltage control members, each of which is arranged at one of the two points and is connected to one of said two transformers and which are operative to control said two transformers in a coordinated manner to regulate an operating voltage level of said insulated AC transmission cable whereby losses due to reactive power transport are minimized.

Art Unit: 2838

Claim 92 recites, inter alia, controlling said transformers in a coordinated manner to regulate an operating voltage level of said insulated AC transmission cable dependent on a surge of impedance of the insulated AC transmission cable, whereby losses due to reactive power transport are minimized, wherein said operating voltage may differ from a voltage of said one or more power networks.

The art of record does not disclose the above limitations, nor would it be obvious to modify the art of record so as to include either of the above limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
